The Outline of Future Events

The Olivet Discourse, found in Matthew 24-25, delivered shortly before Jesus' crucifixion, is the most important single passage of prophecy in the entire Bible. It is significant because it came from Jesus himself immediately after His own people rejected him and because it provides the master outline of future events. Studied in relation to Jeremiah 30, Daniel 2, 7-9 and Revelation 2-20, the Olivet Discourse gives more information about the major events that yet await all of mankind. Matthew 24-25 is paralleled in Mark 13 and Luke 21.
